Foundation Fighting Blindness (FFB)

Over the past 15 years, we have been a passionate supporter of the FFB in their quest to fund sight threatening vision research. We are proud to have received this plaque in recognition of our efforts to raise awareness and research funding. Everyone has family or friends who are affected by degenerative retinal diseases. We support vision research that is so critical to restoring hope and sight. Please help us lead the fight against blindness. Donate today by contacting the FFB at the website below.

ASCRS is the largest cataract and refractive surgery society in the world. Every year at the annual meeting five ophthalmologists from around the world are invited to give a lecture on an innovative and important breakthrough in vision care. Dr Raymond Stein delivered a talk on Topography-guided PRK and Crosslinking in Keratoconus on May 10, 2016 to thousands of clinicians.
